Dear Ministry Partner,

The Christmas season has a way of realigning our hearts with Christ as we recollect that holy night thousands of years ago.

For believers, December 25th is the single most important day of the year, next to Resurrection Sunday, as it offers a chance to journey back to the manger and experience the saving grace of Jesus as if it were the very first time.

The trouble is, once the Christmas lights come down and we settle back into our ordinary routines, it becomes easy to lose our awe and wonder as we are once again faced with the reality of living in a broken and lost world.

Throughout January on Insight for Living, Pastor Chuck Swindoll will teach listeners how to anchor themselves to the One True Rock, even after the magic of the holiday season fades.

This month's broadcast features hand-selected listener favorites that will prepare your audience to begin the New Year rooted deeply in Christ's unfailing love.

But depravity doesn't win—it won't in the end, and it doesn't have to today. Sin is powerful! "But even greater is God's wonderful grace"—Romans 5:17

The truth is, not one of us is immune to the undertow of sin and depravity, but even still, God's astounding grace prevails.

Chuck Swindoll and the entire Insight for Living family is truly thankful for your partnership in ministry as together we spread the hope and truth of the gospel to your listeners year round.

May the magnitude of Christ's love reside deeply in your heart this Christmas, into the New Year and evermore.

Sincerely,

Your Media Services Team
Roger Kemp and Company

Abraham: One Nomad's Amazing Journey of Faith

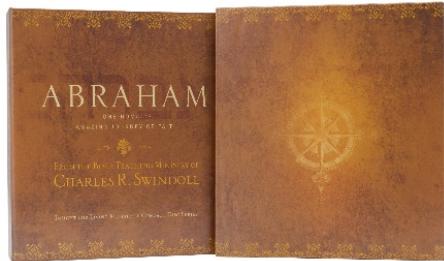

Product

Classic Series

On-Air Dates:

October 25, 2017 – February 22, 2018

Product Description:

What does it take to be “the friend of God” (James 2:23)?

Like us, Abraham lived in a world at enmity with God. But when told to go, he went. When promised, he believed. When commanded, he obeyed. Abraham wasn't called “the friend of God” because of his intellect, his pedigree, or his fortune. Abraham was called God's friend because of his faith.

Through Abraham's life of faith, you'll be challenged to answer life-changing questions such as:

- Is God calling me to do something radical?
- Which of God's promises apply to me?
- How can I lead my family in a godless world?

As you witness a weak man's transformation into a hero of faith, you'll learn what it takes to be “the friend of God.”

CD Series

On-Air Dates:

December 14-26, 2017; January 4-11, 2018

Product Description:

When we consider the vastness of the universe, much less the seven billion souls inhabiting our planet, we can struggle to believe that God cares about our circumstances.

And yet . . . God guided the wayward prophet Jonah from Tarshish to Nineveh through a storm and a great fish. God introduced the world to His Son in a meager animal stall, through a small-town girl and a humble man who believed the impossible. God transformed a terrorist to Christians into the incomparable apostle Paul.

We can trust that God knows us, and His plans are woven in the fabric of our everyday lives. Listen and learn that even when we wonder and doubt, God knows what He's about.
