Dear Ministry Partner,

This November on Insight for Living, Chuck Swindoll is unpacking topics that are sure to strengthen and challenge your listeners' faith.

Chuck teaches on the story of Abraham. His ongoing struggle to walk by faith is a story that resonates with many. Though the world around him seemed to oppose God, Abraham chose to trust the Lord boldly and follow Him unswervingly.

Most Christians will face an "Abraham" moment at some point in life, and your station is ministering directly to those who are in the trenches at this very moment.

An Insight for Living listener shares her incredible journey of learning to trust God in her darkest hour...

"My husband took his own life 8 months ago. KCBI has ministered to me and walked me through all the devastation left in the wake of his suicide, and what will be coming down the road. I know that God will use it for good. I have learned so much about trusting God, the Bible, and getting through tough times from you all. Thank you for being there every day, all day long."

Stories like this one remind us just how powerful the proclamation of God's Word is and that our partnership with stations like yours is vital.

For thirty-eight years, Insight for Living Ministries has helped individuals face life's trials with the inexplicable God-given courage, joy, and peace that comes from studying and holding firm to the promises of Scripture.

Thank you for being the difference between someone giving up ... and instead turning to Jesus.

Sincerely,

Your Media Services Team
Roger Kemp and Company

Product

Classic Series

On-Air Dates:

October 25, 2017 – February 22, 2018

Product Description:

What does it take to be "the friend of God" (James 2:23)?

Like us, Abraham lived in a world at enmity with God. But when told to go, he went. When promised, he believed. When commanded, he obeyed. Abraham wasn't called "the friend of God" because of his intellect, his pedigree, or his fortune. Abraham was called God's friend because of his faith.

Through Abraham's life of faith, you'll be challenged to answer life-changing questions such as:

- Is God calling me to do something radical?
- Which of God's promises apply to me?
- How can I lead my family in a godless world?

As you witness a weak man's transformation into a hero of faith, you'll learn what it takes to be "the friend of God."
